

Practical Strategies for Conversations on End of Life and Hospice

Monday, September 17, 2018

10:00 am-11:00 am

The Village at Rockville

9701 Veirs Dr.

Rockville, MD 20850

Presented by Shahid Aziz, MD, FAAHPM, Montgomery Hospice Team Physician

Continuing Education

*1.0 contact hour for nurses, social workers and nursing home administrators/assisted living managers

*This program counts towards Montgomery Hospice's Certificate in End-of-Life Care (mandatory)

Objectives

- Discuss the importance of having conversations about hospice care and what happens when professionals avoid those conversations
- Discuss when to begin talking with patients and families about the option of hospice care
- Recognize how word choice and language can either be helpful or harmful
- Explore strategies that professionals can use when introducing hospice care to patients and families
- Gain a level of comfort when having end-of-life conversations with others

Register for this free seminar at www.MHConversationsHospice.eventbrite.com

This continuing education activity was approved by the Maryland Nurses Association, an accredited approver of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.